

TWO REPORTS ON THE CREED.

Presbyterian General Assembly Begins Its Fight Over New Declaration of Faith.

ON INFANT SALVATION.

Majority of the Committee Comes Out for the Doctrine that Baptism for Them Is Not Necessary.

PRESBYTERIAN FAITH FROM TWO STANDPOINTS.

From the majority report of the Committee on Revision: That chapter 3, section 3, of the Confession of Faith, is not to be regarded as teaching that any who die in infancy are lost. We believe that all dying in infancy are included in the election of grace, and are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit, who works when and where and how He pleases.

From the dissenting report of John Dewitt: I think it unwise to erect into a Church doctrine one belief that all who die in infancy are saved.

"This is not a city of which we are very proud at present. Our streets are everywhere torn up with that pernicious nuisance known as the subway. And I warn you that there is a sufficient amount of dynamite stored in the immediate vicinity of each of our leading hotels to blow the entire assembly into smithereens. If you have not made your wills, or if you have not been in the habit of saying your prayers regularly, these are matters that ought to be attended to."

From the address of welcome of Rev. Dr. Wilton Merle Smith, moderator of the New York Presbyterian, to the Presbyterian General Assembly.

The new articles of faith for the Presbyterian Church were submitted this morning at the meeting of the General Assembly in the Fifth Avenue Church. They were signed by all the members of the Committee of Revision, except one, the Rev. John Dewitt, who was opposed to the article which stated that all who die in infancy are regenerated through the Spirit.

The Rev. Henry Collins Minton, of California, Chairman of the Committee, read the report. It was received with applause. The dissenting report of Dr. Dewitt caused somewhat of a flutter. John H. Converse, President of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, moved that the report be received for consideration. This motion passed. The discussion will take place Thursday, and the whole day will be devoted to the subject.

Spoke of Mr. Noll's Death.

The General Assembly began its second day's session with devotional exercises. Welcoming addresses were then made by the Rev. Dr. Stevenson, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Dr. Smith, moderator of the New York Presbyterian. Concerning the death of Vincent Noll, the young student to whom a license was refused by the New York Presbytery because he thought Adam was a myth, Dr. Smith said:

"It is only due to our Presbytery to say that no examination was ever conducted with more kindness and brotherly love than in this and I have personally thanked those ministers who conducted it for their kindly spirit."

Young Noll's funeral took place today.

The Rev. Dr. S. Hall Young, of Alaska, presented the new Moderator, Dr. Van Dyke, with a gavel made from the tooth of a walrus.

CROSS ACCUSER OF TWO POLICEMEN

Inspector Brings New Complication Into Churchill Case by Saying Bock and Reich Made False Statements.

A complication in the controversy between Inspector Cross and Sergt. Churchill came to light this morning when Police Commissioner Bock and W. S. Reich were placed on trial before Deputy Commissioner Thurston, charged with making false statements and violating the rules of the Department which forbids policemen to ask for transfers save through their inspectors. Bock and Reich were wardens for Churchill when he was acting captain of the Fifth street precinct. After he was transferred the two policemen wrote to Commissioner Partridge saying that Inspector Cross had instructed them to ask for transfers, that they did not wish to be transferred, and desired a hearing.

Otto Rosinsky, who has been retained as counsel for Churchill, appeared for the accused policemen today. Inspector Cross was the first witness. He said that he had instructed the men to ask for transfers and that the letter to the Commissioner contained a false statement.

Inspector Cross was cross-examined by Attorney Rosinsky. The inspector said that the policemen had come to his office and asked him to write the letter for them. He said that he did not know where they were when they wrote the letter.

Commissioner Partridge testified that the two accused policemen admitted to him that they had made a false statement. The testimony of the Commissioner closed the case, which Deputy Commissioner Thurston took under advisement.

YOUNG MRS. POILLON ON WITNESS STAND.

Correspondent in Divorce Case Denies the Stories Told by Son and Servant of Mrs. John Poillon.

Hester Poillon, co-respondent in the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. John J. H. Poillon, was a witness for the defense this afternoon in Justice Stockley's court. She is the wife of J. Edward Poillon, who is a cousin of the defendant. Earlier in the day the defendant and J. Edward Poillon had testified denying all the stories told by his children and servants of Mrs. Poillon, the complainant.

Mrs. Hester Poillon declared that the testimony of Dolly Vanderwell and the defendant's son as to specific charges against her as "infamously false."

"Yes," began the cross-examiner, "your husband transferred his property to you just before he went through bankruptcy, didn't he?"

"He went through bankruptcy sometime after that," replied the witness.

The co-respondent was led over the story of the drives with the defendant.

"You think a good deal of Mr. John Poillon, don't you?"

"I certainly do. I have always liked Mr. Poillon. He has always been good and kind to me."

To Justice Stockley the witness said:

"The cause of the separation between Mr. and Mrs. John Poillon was the engagement of Mr. Poillon and Miss Poillon directly against his wishes and ambitions. They made that poor, sick man's life miserable. It was a case of incompatibility of temperament."

EDNA MAY CO-RESPONDENT.

Named by Countess De La Warr in Proceedings Against Earl.

LONDON, May 16.—Edna May, the American actress, is named as co-respondent in divorce proceedings which Countess de la Warr is instituting against her husband.

The Countess recently obtained a decree against the Earl for the restoration of her conjugal rights.

HERLIHY CASE BEFORE JURY.

Assistant District-Attorney Rand Says He Will Prove Captain Neglected His Duty.

FIRST WITNESS CALLED.

Effort to Show that Defendant Permitted 110 Disorderly Houses to Be Run in Eldridge Street Precinct.

The trial of Police Captain John D. Herlihy, charged with neglect of duty in not suppressing 110 disorderly houses in the Eldridge street precinct when he was in command there, proceeded today.

Assistant District-Attorney Rand made his opening address. He asked the jury to remember that the defendant was not charged with corruption, but merely neglect of duty. He said that the State would show that the disorderly houses existed and that Capt. Herlihy knowingly permitted them to exist.

He pointed out the conditions existing in the precinct during Herlihy's command and laid stress on the fact that he was soon as a new captain (Titus) went into the precinct all the places disappeared as though by magic.

The first witness called was Wallace Delameter, a clerk at Police Headquarters, who testified to Herlihy's connection with the Police Department.

Julius C. Peterson, of No. 850 Twenty-eighth avenue, Brooklyn, a Police Department messenger, testified that on Sept. 25, 1899, he carried a report from Herlihy to Bernard York, the President of the Police Board, to the effect that there were no disorderly houses in the precinct. The report gave a list of suspected places.

This report was admitted in evidence. A report made three months later and still showing no disorderly houses, but giving new suspected places, was also introduced in evidence. The objection of the defense being overruled.

James B. Reynolds, Mayor Low's Secretary, testified in relation to the existence of disorderly houses in the precinct of which Capt. Herlihy was in charge.

AGED EX-POLICEMAN DEAD.

Edward V. Graham Long Ago Retired from the Force.

Edward V. Graham, a retired policeman, eighty-two years old, died of paralysis to-day, at his home, No. 2351 Third avenue.

He was appointed a policeman in 1851, resigning as foreman of the Columbus Volunteer Fire Company to take the place of a man who died twenty-eight years. He was one of the oldest fire men in the city. A Masonic funeral and interment will be given him on Sunday.

SAID EARL WAS DRUNK.

Egmont Arrested in Piccadilly, Female Companion Tried Suicide.

LONDON, May 16.—In the Marlborough Street Police Court this morning the Earl of Egmont was charged with being drunk in Piccadilly.

His Lordship, who married an American, failed to appear. A policeman testified to arresting the intoxicated Earl and a woman companion, whose conduct was attractive to a crowd.

The woman attempted suicide in her cell by tying a handkerchief round her neck. She was discharged with a caution.

FOREIGN ORDERS FOR YOUNG KING.

Alfonso Decorated with the Garter by King Edward—Sweden and Siam Confer Distinguished Honors.

MADRID, May 16.—King Alfonso was invested with a number of foreign decorations this morning.

The ceremony, which was of an imposing nature, took place in the Throne Room of the palace.

The King was surrounded by a brilliant assemblage of high officers of state.

Among the orders bestowed upon him was that of the Garter, which he received from the Duke of Connaught as representative of King Edward; the Cordon Bleu of the Order of the Seraphim from Prince Eugene of Sweden, representing King Oscar; and the Royal Order of Siam from the Crown Prince of Siam, the Special Envoy of the King of Siam.

The Impulse of Love

Thrives well on spring sunshine and joy. That is why May and June are such popular wedding months. A Jeweller is not the least important of Cupid's aids. Intelligent economy suggests the name of LAMBERT BROTHERS. Being manufacturers, our prices are very much lower than other stores must charge—and as for quality, our Golden Guarantee protects every sale.

The Lambert Seamstress
Wedding Rings
are the best in the world—absolutely. There can be none better. Made right in our factory of virgin gold, not even an atom of solder being used in their composition. Our policy of selling wedding rings at only a slight advance over manufacturer's cost has earned us the approval of thousands of prudent young couples.

The Purchasing of Diamond
unless you are an expert, is largely a matter of confidence. To gain and hold this confidence has been our constant effort for 25 years. We were fortunate enough to import a tremendous stock of pure white gems before the South African trust advanced the prices, and are letting our customers share in this great saving. Our stock of engagement rings will satisfy every taste and pocket-book; also a regal assortment of fiery diamond rings suitable for birthdays and other gift purposes—all sold for less than present importation cost.

WEDDING GIFT SELECTION
is not a difficult matter if you come to Lambert Brothers. An almost endless assortment of desirable articles to choose from in sterling silver and silver-plated ware; also a fine line of imported and domestic Clocks. The true importance of looking to us for your wedding gift requirements becomes at once apparent when you notice the very low prices that prevail here.

Gold Jewelry and Novelties for Ushers and Bridesmaids.
Not a larger stock in all New York. And best of all is the great price-saver, enabling you to thoroughly please the recipient without drawing too heavily on the pocketbook.
